Warlock 1959

WIDESCREEN EDITION

HENRY FONDA AND ANTHONY QUINN IN
RICHARD WIDMARK IN A THEATRICAL SHOWDOWN

Warlock is a small frontier mining community with a big problem - the vicious outlaw gang that terrorizes its citizens. Seeking protection, the town people hire a lawless killer (Henry Fonda) who sports fancy clothes and two gold-handled Colts. His sidekick (Anthony Quinn) is a crippled gambler with a taste for violence. The two clean up the town in short order, but the appearance of a reformed bandit who now supports the law (Richard Widmark) ultimately leads to tense confrontation working with justice and vengeance. Powered by a top-notch script, WARLOCK is an intelligent western about frightened people rediscovering courage they'd forgotten they had.

11. Warlock 1959 Blu

What makes 1959's Warlock so special is that it steers away from this tradition; it isn't a story about good triumphing over evil, but the rule of the law winning the day over characters who've seen their fair share of both sides of it.

Warlock (1959) by Glenn Erickson Jun 01, 2019. As the first wave of 'adult' westerns began to fade, 1959 gave us a burst of genuinely adult stories about the famed lawless towns of the frontier. Henry Fonda is at his moody best in a replay of his earlier Wyatt Earp, de-mythologized as just one more self-oriented opportunist in a land where ...

Warlock (1959) Edward Dmytryk's first film as a director, after rising through the ranks at Paramount from lowly messenger boy to film cutter, was the western The Hawk(re-issued as *Trail of the Hawk*1935), shot in five days at Monogram Studios.

20. Warlock 1959 Classic Movie Review 31

Rough Script Warlock (1959) Welcome to Episode 31 - Warlock (1959). I am sorry if you were expecting a horror film as this is a classic western. We are continuing with the Richard Widmark line that was begun in Episode 23 The Long Ships (1964). This is a very complex movie and I will use a quote from the Tennessee Word Smith, with a link on WordPress, to outline the movie:

21. Warlock 1959

Warlock (1959) Warlock (1959) Mark Franklin July 5, 2015 1950s. Henry Fonda is Clay Blaisedell, a famed gunman hired to come to the town of Warlock and deal with Abe McQuown and his cowboys. Abe was the first man to settle in these parts, and he considers himself above the law, and certainly above any deputy sheriff hired by the town leaders.
